

Ramsey Grammar School

Scheme of Work – Key Stage 4 (Year 11)

Department: Art (September - February)

UNIT TITLE / THEME:	Transformation - Self Portrait Project
Cross Curricular Links/Transferrable skills:	Creativity, Critical thinking skills, Communication, Biology, English, ICT

Lesson	Learning Outcomes/Objectives	Main teaching activities	Key Assessment Tasks: Summative/Formative
1 - 9	Introduction Line and Linear Tone and Form Proportion	The students will be introduced to the new project of portraiture. The students will be shown how to map out the human face. The students will use the techniques to draw out the reverse side of two half portrait images. One will remain a line drawing, whilst the other will be completed with tonal shading to show and understanding of form.	Verbal feedback Formative Assessment for each stage. Summative Assessment for each stage.
10 - 21	Observational drawing Shading techniques Line and Linear Tone and Form Proportion A3 Graphite self portrait	Using the techniques learnt in the previous lessons, the students will now create an A3 observational graphite self-portrait, taken from photograph taken in a previous lesson.	Verbal feedback Formative Assessment for each stage. Summative Assessment for each stage.
22 - 27	Critical Studies Observational drawing Media experiments A3 Artist study	Working from an image of a personally selected artist's piece of work, the students will complete an A4 study using a media of their choice.	Verbal feedback Formative Assessment for each stage. Summative Assessment for each stage.
28 - 36	Experimentation Compositional experiments Media experiments A3 Final design	Combining the skills that they have learned, research that they have carried out, with a working knowledge of a selected artist's style, the students will create an A3 final design for their intended final piece.	Verbal feedback Formative Assessment for each stage. Summative Assessment for each stage.
37 - 48	Media selection Design selection A1 Final piece	From all of the work that the students have created and worked through during the project, they will complete with an A1 final self-portrait piece.	Verbal feedback Formative Assessment for each stage. Summative Assessment for each stage.